The Prison Rape Elimination Act (PREA) and Juvenile Justice
Objectives

• Provide an Overview of PREA
• Discuss the PREA Audit Cycle
• Discuss the PREA Audit Process
Background

- 2003 – President George W. Bush Signs the Prison Rape Elimination Act (PREA) into Law
- 2004 – The National Prison Rape Elimination Commission (NRPEC) is Established
- 2009 – The NPREC Releases its Final Report and Proposed Standards to Prevent, Detect and Respond to Sexual Abuse of Incarcerated and Detained Individuals
- 2012 – The Final PREA Rule is Published in the Federal Register
- 2013 – The First 3 year Audit Cycle Begins
Why is PREA Important?

- In 2012, juvenile correctional administrators reported 865 allegations of sexual victimization in state juvenile systems and 613 in local or private facilities and Indian country facilities.
- The number of allegations per year has fluctuated in state juvenile systems and the rate more than doubled, from 19 per 1,000 youth in 2005 to 47 per 1,000 in 2012.
- In locally and privately operated facilities, the number of allegations dropped from 2009 to 2011 and then began to rise in 2012. Based on 2-year rolling averages, the rate in 2012 was 13.5 per 1,000 youth, up from 7.2 per 1,000 in 2010.
- From 2007 to 2012, nearly 9,500 allegations of sexual victimization of youth were reported in state or local and private facilities. Fifty-five percent involved youth-on-youth sexual victimization and 45% involved staff-on-youth sexual victimization.
- Sexual Safety and Facility Liability
The Audit Cycle

• The First 3 year audit cycle began on August 20, 2013
• The Second 3 year audit cycle runs from August 20, 2016 to August 19, 2019
• Agencies operating more than one facility were required to complete PREA audits of at least 1/3 of their facilities during each year of the 3 year audit cycle
• If a facility was required to be audited during the 1\textsuperscript{st} year of the 1\textsuperscript{st} audit cycle, but was not audited until the 2\textsuperscript{nd} or 3\textsuperscript{rd} year, they are required to be audited in the 1\textsuperscript{st} year of the 2\textsuperscript{nd} audit cycle

Corrective Actions

- Upon receipt of auditor’s report, if facility has not met all of the standards, a 180-day corrective action period begins (Note: Compliance can be achieved before the 180 days is complete)

- Developing the corrective action plan is a joint process between the agency and auditor

- Agency must correct all issues and auditor shall verify compliance within the 180-day time period to achieve full compliance

- If the agency does not achieve compliance upon verification, it can request another audit once it believes it has achieved compliance

- Corrective action period is NOT a bad thing!
Audit (Appeals)

- Agency may lodge an appeal with DOJ regarding any audit finding

- Appeal must be lodged within 90 days of the auditor’s final determination

- If DOJ determines there is good reason for re-evaluation, there may be a re-audit

- Agency bears the cost of the re-audit

- Findings of the appeal are final and cannot be appealed
